

MDVR - Video Streaming, Recording and Tracking

The mobile DVR (MDVR) is a cost effective, multi-functional recording device with the ability to transmit live streaming video, tracking, GPS and other vehicle (or asset) data. Record and transmit crucial transportation video for security and safety applications. Able to connect up to 4 (MDVR4) and 8 (MDVR8) cameras for front, side and rear video footage. Choose from 1Tb or 2Tb Hard Drive (optional 32Gb back-up SD card available).

Features

- Video & audio synchronous real-time recording and playback
- Available in 4 or 8 video channel models
- A choice of 1Tb or 2Tb hard drive
- Streams audio on all channels (subscription required)
- Removable 2.5 inch HDD (supports max 2Tb). Includes professional hard disk damping technology
- SD card for backup recording & data mirroring (optional 32GB SD card)
- 3G communication for asset (vehicle) tracking and viewing of video and other data
- Built-in GPS module
- Built-in G-sensor to monitor crashes, harsh braking/accelerating
- 8 digital alarm inputs, 2 digital outputs
- Wi-Fi data download to your server when in range
- Three RS485 interfaces, one RS232 interface
- Compatible with RCA/BNC type connector cameras
- 12V power output (max 3A) to power cameras and small LCD screen(s)
- Free Apple and Android fleet management app
- Optional video monitors available

Software screenshot

