

MDVR-IP - Full HD Video Streaming, Recording and Tracking

The MDVR-IP is a mobile multi-functional recording device with the ability to transmit live streaming video in Full HD, tracking data, GPS and other vehicle (or asset) data over the 4G network. Record and transmit crucial transportation video for security and safety applications. Able to connect up to 8 IP cameras - Optional IP cameras available include internal dome cameras, front facing internal cameras, heavy duty external rear and side cameras, all are able to individually transmit and record Full HD 1080p video. Available with 1TB or 2TB hard drive (sold separately).

Features

- Video & audio synchronous real-time recording and playback
- Available in 4 or 8 video channel models
- A choice of 1TB or 2TB hard drive (sold separately)
- Streams all channels over the 4G network in Full HD 1080p (subscription required)
- Removable 2.5 inch HDD (supports max 2TB). Includes professional hard disk damping technology
- SD card for backup recording & data mirroring (optional 32GB SD card)
- 4G communication for asset (vehicle) tracking and viewing of video and other data
- Built-in GPS module
- Built-in G-sensor to monitor crashes, harsh braking/accelerating
- 8 alarm trigger inputs
- Wi-Fi data download to your server when in range
- RS232 comms port
- Audio output for SOS emergency comms
- HDMI video output or RCA for maximum compatibility for a variety of monitors
- Compatible with RJ45/Cat6 and BNC type connector IP cameras
- 8~36vDC power input
- 12V power output (max 3A) to power cameras and small LCD screen(s)
- Free Apple and Android fleet management app
- Optional video monitors available

